BOISE CENTRE

SOCIAL MEDIA TERMS OF USE

Last modified: April 2025

Boise Centre ("we" or "our") recognizes that the internet provides unique opportunities to participate in interactive discussions and share information on particular topics using social media (hereinafter "Social Media"). We maintain Social Media to provide communication on events scheduled at Boise Centre, announcements, and information important to the community.

We welcome your comments, however, please note that our Social Media pages are limited public forums. Boise Centre reserves the right to close the forum to the public at any time.

Comments made by the public on our Social Media pages will be reviewed, and while comments will not be edited by our personnel, Boise Centre reserves the right to remove comments on all of our Social Media pages that do not comply with these Terms of Use. Users may only submit comments, replies, or other content that are topically-related to the Social Media post by Boise Centre being commented upon. Submissions that are off topic, including but not limited to promotional content, spam, or unrelated discussions, may be removed at our discretion.

Please review our guidelines prior to commenting on Boise Centre's Social Media pages. A comment posted by a member of the public on any of our Social Media pages is the opinion of the commentor or poster only and publication of the comment does not imply endorsement of, or agreement by, Boise Centre, nor do such comments necessarily reflect the opinions or policies of Boise Centre. Use of any Social Media is voluntary.

Please do not submit content that includes the following:

1. Obscene material as defined by Idaho Code Section 18-4101, or child pornography.

2. Content that solicits, promotes, facilitates, incites or consummates any illegal activity, including cyberstalking, harassment, and conduct that violates the intellectual property rights of another.

3. Threats to commit a physical act of violence to a particular individual or group.

4. Content that promotes, fosters, or perpetuates illegal discrimination on any basis protected by federal, state, or local law.

5. Defamatory speech.

6. Content that may compromise the safety or security of the public or public systems, such as malware links.

Conduct Not Prohibited by This Terms of Use. This Terms of Use is not intended to restrict communications or actions protected by the First Amendment of the Constitution of the United States (the "First Amendment").

Disclaimer. As a public entity, we may at times be prohibited from removing profane, offensive, or controversial content that does not otherwise violate these Terms of Use or applicable law. While certain content may not reflect the views of Boise Centre, it may be protected speech that cannot be removed under the First Amendment. If you encounter content that you find objectionable, please use discretion when choosing to engage. Users access and engage with our Social Media pages at their own risk.

Third Party Social Media Platforms. Our Social Media pages are subject to the Terms of Service of each respective third-party Social Media platform on which our Social Media pages operate. Carefully review the Terms of Service of all third-party Social Media platforms you visit. Third-party Social Media platforms may provide reporting mechanisms that allow users to flag content they believe violates the platform's Terms of Service.
